

Affordable Online Access to three HealthQuest Databases

HQ online subscriptions provide searchable on-line 24/7 access to three continually updated databases: The National Managed Care Leadership Directory, Health Care Executive Profiles, and MCOL's Health Plan Directory.

With a HQ online Subscription, you can target your information needs using a variety of powerful and easy to use search options, and access these databases anywhere, any time on the web.

- 1. The database version of the National Managed Care Leadership Directory is searchable by company or employee level criteria, and provides company contact information and employee name, title and categorized job levels. Company searches may be conducted based on company name, company type, parent company, state, zip prefix or plan size. Results provide a listing of companies meeting the search criteria with links to the Company Profile, which provides company contact information and a listing of all applicable employees indicating job level, name and title. Employee searches may be conducted based on last name, job type, parent company, state, zip prefix or plan size. Results provide a listing of employees meeting the search criteria with links to each applicable Company Profile.
- 2. The Health Care Executive Profile Database includes all profile listings for Who's Who in Managed Health Care, plus profiles of executives and thought leaders in additional sectors. Searches may be conducted by profile type, organization, state and last name. Results provide a listing of individuals meeting the search criteria, with links to a their executive profile.
- 3. The MCOL Health Plan Directory may be searched by state, parent company or plan type. Results provide a listing of plans and provider networks meeting the search criteria, with links to applicable plan profiles, which include contact information, CEO, and available annual total member and revenue history.
